

Benefits of a tekomp Europe Membership

Tangible Benefits:

- (Free) access to regular country organization events where members can attend expert presentations, exchange information and establish new contacts.
- Reduced fees for special country organization conferences (e.g. roadshow).
- Up to 30% reduced conference and seminar fees (e.g. for tcworld conference).
- Free qualification consulting service as part of the certification for technical communicators (for full-paying members).
- Free subscription to the 'tcworld magazine' (in English) or professional journal 'technische kommunikation' (in German).
- Reduced prices for tekomp publications.
- Free access to all articles on tekomp.eu (German and English versions).

Intangible Benefits:

- tekomp Europe represents the professional and political interests of all those concerned with technical communication. Experts are involved in the definition of international standards and guidelines, in the preparation of criteria for good documentation, in testing documentation, and informing the media.
- tekomp Europe develops the occupational profile of the technical communicator and creates public awareness about the profession.
- tekomp Europe enables the exchange of experiences among academic and teaching staff, training institutes, freelancers and business leaders.
- Membership is proof of professionalism and of your affiliation with a dynamic profession.