

Additional Benefits of a tekomp Europe Company Membership

tekomp Europe company memberships are combined individual memberships that are registered through a corporation. Company members receive all the benefits of an individual membership plus the following services:

- Up to 5 individuals or up to 10 individuals can be registered as members, and benefit from all the services of the association.
- Memberships are transferable within the company. Members can be re-registered anytime free of charge, saving the 60.00 Euro fee for a new registration.
- As a company member, you will receive regular invitations to deliver presentations at events, like the tekomp conferences, etc.
- Company members receive special conditions on the exhibition area at tekomp fairs.
- Each year, company members are entitled to subscribe a certain number of employees for further professional development consultations, as part of the tekomp technical communicator certification program.
- Company members receive reduced rates for banner placement on www.tekomp.de and on www.tcworld.info. For the current Media Kit please contact sales@tekomp.de.
- Company members can advertise job offers in the magazines 'technische kommunikation' (in German) or 'tcworld magazine' (in English). We have established job vacancy prices. For the current Media Kit please contact +49 711 65704-52, -57 or sales@tekomp.de.
