

Candidate Profile

Ildikó Fehér (-)

Manager of content development

Academic background:

Szeged University

MA, English Language and Literature

MSc, Biological Sciences

Professional career:

Experienced technical communications professional covering documentation development and management roles at various companies.

Currently, Manager of content development at Cloudera.

Professional experience in technical communication:

Content architecture, technical writing, SW documentation, DITA XML, structured authoring, project/account/operations management, strategic development, team management, process modeling and development

Goals:

I would like to

- continue growing the professional community of technical communicators in Hungary
- promote tekomp Magyarország in this tech comm community
- reach out to and bring in people who do not yet know us, provide networking opportunities
- organize interesting and compelling events for tech comm professionals and other people interested in the domain
- promote the profession among university students
- strengthen the connection between businesses and universities, cooperate in educational initiatives
- continue building international connections and establish collaboration with fellow country organizations