

Candidate Profile

Gary Manders

is running for the position of secretary.

Academic background:

BSc (Hons) Biology; University of Derby, UK

PhD Botany, University of Nottingham, UK

MBA International Business Management, Uppsala University, Sweden

Professional career:

Post-Doc researcher

Small business owner - communications company

- technical writer

- copy writer

- project manager

- marketing consultant

Global Business Director, Information services

Managing Director, Engineering and Information services

Managing Director, Information and translation services

Professional experience in technical communication:

Over almost 30 years:

- Technical writer

- International business leader of information and language services & technologies, including information digitalization

- Board member of Swedish FTI/ tekom Sweden since 2018

- Treasurer of the tekom Europe Executive Board since 2020

Goals for my role as secretary:

To develop the profession of technical communication in Sweden with the backing, resources and context of tekom Europe.

To pave the way for the next leaders in technical communication in Sweden.